WIFE SUES HUSBAND

Mrs. Julia B. Moore Asks for Accounting.

ACTION IS FOR LARGE SUM

Co-defendants Also Named in Connection with Stocks and Affairs of the American Planograph Company—Alleges Charles T. Moore Has Been Adjudged Insane.

Mrs. Julia B. Moore, through her attorneys, Ralston & Siddons, yesterday began suit for recovery and accounting from her husband, Charles T. Moore, who for many years was a well-known business man in this city, and for a restraining order and an injunction. Mrs. Moore has apartments at the Farragut, and she says that her husband is now residing at Front Royal, Va.

The action is for a large sum of money in connection with the stock and affairs of the American Planograph Company. Mrs. Moore also names as co-defendants Richard C. Thompson in his capacity as trustee and committee of the person of her husband, who had been adjudged insane; J. K. M. Norton, as trustee; National Safe Deposit Savings and Trust Company as trustee; George R. Cornwell, of New York, in his own right; Henry L. Bryan, a lawyer, and his wife, Marian Bryan, in their own right, and the American Planograph Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of West Virginia.

Withdraws Valuable Stocks.
In her bill of complaint Mrs. Moore alleges that since December 16, 1906, her husband, in gross violation of her rights and with the knowledge and consent of the defendants, withdrew valuable stocks belonging to her, had them canceled on the books of the American Planograph Company, and then new certificates were issued, made out in her husband's name.

Mrs. Moore states that her husband has been for years a habitual drunkard, and that his mental condition had become such, owing to his excesses, that he was adjudged a lunatic April 24, 1905, in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, and Richard C. Thompson was appointed committee of his person; that he spent two months in the Government Hospital for the Insane, but for a greater part of the time while he was in this condition she nursed him.

To Receive $100,000.
In her bill Mrs. Moore says that of the stock of the company deposited in the American Security and Trust Company's vaults, 5,995 shares were in the name of her husband, and owned by him, over and above 5,994 shares owned by her. She says he was also the owner of other stock. She alleges that her husband was to receive $100,000 from the company, this being his share as promoter. She says that through Thompson, his committee, Moore has received $118,564, if not the whole sum of $100,000. She alleges that Thompson also received as committee from the sale of stock and salary due Moore about $20,000. She says her husband also received $4,000 from sale of stock to Russell Hutchins.

Chief Justice Claiborne issued a temporary restraining order and an injunction against the defendants, prohibiting them from disposing of or taking any action with the stock, etc., and made the order returnable for hearing February 8.

TO REGULATE MONEY LENDING.

Bill Drafted That Imposes Restriction on All but Banks.

Corporation Counsel E. H. Thomas yesterday submitted to the Commissioners the draft of a bill, which, if adopted, will tend to revolutionize the business of loaning money on securities of any kind by persons, firms, and corporations other than the national banks and trust companies in the District of Columbia.

The subject was brought to the attention of the corporation counsel upon recommendation of the Commissioners, numerous complaints having been received by the Commissioners concerning the methods of transacting business by various loan companies in the city.

By the provisions of the bill the Commissioners are authorized to make daily inspection of the books of the companies, each of which shall pay a license tax of $100 per annum to the District.

Protests may be made by any person to the issuing of such licenses, and when filed with the Commissioners, the latter shall give public notice of any held a public hearing upon such protests before issuing such license.

Each application shall be accompanied by a bond to the District in the penal sum of $5,000, with two sureties or mortgages, and conditioned that the obligor will not violate any law relating to the business.

Must List Rented Buildings.

A. F. Statter, Acting Secretary of the Treasury, yesterday called the attention of the Commissioners to a resolution recently passed by the House requiring the Secretary of the Treasury to transmit to that body a statement showing all lands and buildings and parts of buildings now leased by the government in the District, including a brief description of such properties, the purposes for which they are used, the rentals paid, and in case of buildings or parts of buildings, the rental per square foot, wherever practicable; the date of the termination of such leases, the names of the lessors, and the statutory authority under which such leases were made.

Sites for New Gas Lamps Selected.

The Commissioners yesterday approved the recommendation of W. E. Allen, electrical engineer of the District, that authority be granted to erect gas lamps at the following locations: At the corner of Illinois avenue and Upshur street, on Fifth street, between Quincy and Randolph streets; on Quincy street, between Fifth and Eighth streets, and on Randolph street, between Seventh street and New Hampshire avenue, all in Petworth. Two lamps will be erected also on Sixth street between I and K streets northeast.

Private Detective to Lose Place.

The Commissioners yesterday refused the request of C. H. Harris, 26 D street northeast, that he be reappointed as a private detective, to take effect upon the expiration of his present appointment, February 18. According to the reports furnished Inspector Boardman, Harris has been employed but twice as a detective since November, 1905.

Extra Men Cleaning Away Snow.

John T. Twohey, superintendent of street cleaning, yesterday detailed 250 extra men to clean the snow from the street crossings of the city. The sum of $2,500 for this work was appropriated, half of which has been expended.

MACHINISTS FOR CHEAPER GAS

Promptly Nonconcur in Action of Central Labor Union.

Unanimous Indorsement Given to the Madden Bill by Columbia Lodge No. 174—Statement to Public.

A committee of the Central Labor Union a few nights ago presented an elaborate report opposing the passage of the pending bill to reduce the price of gas to consumers in Washington from $1 to 75 cents. There was objection to this report, but it was adopted. Since then there has been much comment of an unfavorable nature upon the action of the Central Labor Union.

Columbia Lodge, No. 174, International Association of Machinists, very promptly nonconcurring, as is shown by the following:

Editor The Washington Herald:
I was instructed at a regular meeting of Columbia Lodge, No. 174, I. A. of M., January 30, 1907, that Columbia Lodge nonconcur in the action of the Central Labor Union of last Monday night in regard to the Madden gas bill. And further instructed that No. 174 unanimously indorses the Madden gas bill.
